SEGARIA

about 6km, 350m.asc, 3 1/2 hrs.
hard moderate circuit.

This short, but steep, circuit climbs up to the foot of the rock tower on the pinnacled Segaria Ridge and offers outstanding view. The route is well marked and mostly on good paths.

ABANDONED VILLAGE

A moderate circular walk, all on good paths with only one steep climb, up to the watchtower. About 11km, 150m asc 3½ hrs (shorter from rest. Mena or longer if started at the station).

TORRE GERRO 'the salt pot' looks like a giant chess piece and was built to warn of pirate attack.

ABANDONED VILLAGE - some say the quarry closed or water ran out, but more likely it was built against planning rules.
